Description

Position: Social Media and Marketing Intern

I'm looking for an unpaid intern through spring with the possibility of a paid position starting Summer into Fall.

[REDACTED] are seeking a creative and motivated student intern to assist with social media and marketing efforts. This position involves helping manage and grow our Instagram, Facebook, TikTok, and YouTube platforms, creating engaging posts and videos, and connecting our healing services and classes with new audiences.

Ideal candidates have an interest in holistic wellness, animals, or spiritual healing, and enjoy storytelling, content creation, and community engagement. Basic knowledge of social media trends, Canva, or video editing is helpful.

This is a flexible, hands-on opportunity to gain experience in digital marketing and small business growth while supporting a compassionate healing practice. If this works out and business is picking up then there is a possibility for some kind of compensation eventually.

[REDACTED] provide energy healing and holistic education for people, along with intuitive communication and healing support for animals. Based in [REDACTED], Florida, I also serve clients and students nationwide. My focus is on promoting balance, comfort, and connection through mindful, heart-centered healing.
